

Castagnolo Restaurant
Fisherman's Wharf - San Francisco

Built out over the water, this delightful dining room overlooks the entire scene of historic Fishermen's Wharf and its merry activities. From here you can watch the boats of the fishing fleet coming and going and chatting with their captain. Afternoon tea and many other interesting meals, which you don't want to miss.

Quintessence for a family with a long tradition of serving fine food, Castagnolo's is noted for the excellence of its sea food dishes.
